

Publications Reporter

Communications Team · Remote, with occasional event coverage · 2–4 hours/month

Tell the stories that connect us to the Trail.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

Attend events, interview members, research topics, and write articles that preserve the experiences, history, and people that make GATC special.

WHY IT MATTERS

The stories we tell are how GATC's community sees itself — and how new members and hikers discover what makes this club worth being part of. Your reporting keeps that connection alive.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR

- Curiosity and a willingness to ask questions
- Comfortable approaching people at events for a quick interview
- Clear, engaging writing (journalism background not required)

WHAT YOU'LL GET

- A byline on every piece you write
- Flexible remote schedule, with occasional event coverage
- Mentorship available from our Publications team lead

Time Commitment	2–4 hours/month
